Swing Today as 'Big Five' Confer With Labor Board

U. S. WILL URGE CANCELLATION OF
THE STRIKE CALL

Officials of Unions Which Have Not Ordered Walk-Out
Also to Meet

Farmers Act

Will Demand Repeal of Adamson Act and Esch-Cummins
Railroad Bill

(By The Associated Press)

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Preparations for the various moves through which it is hoped the threatened rail strike will be averted were completed today and tomorrow the peace efforts will go in full swing.

Heads of the unions and of the carriers tonight were awaiting the conference tomorrow between the "Big Five" rail union leaders and the Railroad Labor Board, and the meeting of officials of 11 unions which have not yet joined the conductors, engineers, firemen, trainmen and switchmen in a strike order. Both sides were agreed that out of these conferences would come the final decision as to whether a general walk-out of rail employees would materialize.

In the conference with the Labor board, the possibility of the "Big Five" being persuaded to cancel their orders for a walk-out, while in the meetings of the 11 unions, which actually started today, was to be decided whether these organizations, holding the balance of man power through numbering three-fourths of the nearly two million rail workers in their membership, would join the "Big Five" if they walked out October 30 as planned.

While the conference with the Labor board was looked on as the most important of the peace movements, railroad men tonight professed to see signs of a peaceful settlement of the difficulties in the attitude of B. M. Jewell, head of the 476,000 members of the six railway shop craft organizations, and of J. C. Smock, head of the 200,000 members of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, which numbers 300,000 men.

The shop crafts executive council met today but took no action other than to call in the conference committee of one hundred. The committee, while having the power to call a strike, also is expected to defer action by calling in the 1,000 general chairmen for a meeting Friday, when the mutual attitude of these groups will be made known.

The Maintenance of Way executive council met only informally today,
the formal meeting coming tomorrow,
when all of the members are expected to be present.

"I cannot speak for my entire organization now, but personally, I will do what we do not do, that we would never strike on the wage question unless forced to, and that we will not go into any walk-out with the brotherhoods unless we have definite promises of cooperation which we have not been forthcoming from them," said Mr. Smock.

Mr. Jewell repeated his statements that he was opposed to the strike.

Brotherhood Chiefs Lay Plans.

Cleveland, Oct. 19.—Four of the Big Five railroad transportation chiefs left here late tonight for Chicago, where tomorrow they will be joined by L. E. Sheppard, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, and together with the Railroad Labor Board in an effort to end the nation-wide railroad strike which began October 20.

Prior to the conference with the Labor board tomorrow, the Big Five chief executives will hold a meeting to discuss matters pertaining to the situation, and coordinate plans governing their action when they go into session with the board.

Before leaving tonight, the brotherhood chiefs said they did not have the faintest idea of what proposals the Labor board intends to submit to them at tomorrow's conference. Their attitude was one of receptiveness and flexibility to discuss anything which might be prejudicial to any contingency more contemplated.

T. C. Cashen, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen.

It was announced today that the members of the advisory board of the engineers and the executive committee of the firemen will remain here pending further instructions from their presidents.

GOVERNMENT SILENT AS IT AWAITS TODAY'S CONFAB

Washington, Oct. 19.—Interest in the strike situation has centered today in the conference of railroad leaders and the Railroad Labor Board tomorrow in Chicago. Hope that a definite program to avert the strike would result from that meeting was general in government circles.

With President Harding and several members of the cabinet out of the city, there was no announcement of further assistance by the government.
The Interstate Commerce commission also maintained silence regarding reports that the tentative program of the Chicago conference would include provisions for a reduction in freight rates in proportion to the July cut in railroad wages.

Attorney General Daugherty said the department of justice was giving "considerable attention to the matter" of the threatened strike.

The suggestion that certain provisions of the Adamson act and of the Esch-Cummins railroad bill were impending "a prompt return to normalcy" in railroad rates and service, was made today to Chairman Cummins of the senate Interstate Commerce committee by the American Farm Bureau Federation which served notice that "we will move on an early date for the repeal of these two measures, in whole or in part."

The federation plans to file tomorrow with the Interstate Commerce commission a petition asking "immediate reduction in rates on basic commodities of from 10 to 20 per cent," the letter to Mr. Cummins said, adding that the petition would be accompanied by a request for "reduction of all reduction of operating expenses in lower rates until the freight advance since August, 1920, is eliminated."

NEW YORK RAILROADS JOIN IN ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN

New York, Oct. 19.—Railway executives today took active steps to keep their lines running if the threatened rail strike materialized October 30.

A member of the General Managers' association let it become known: It tomorrow all roads entering New York would join in an advertising campaign for workers to fill such vacancies as might occur. At the same time, the Erie issued an appeal to the public for volunteers to man cabs and platforms. Other lines also are keeping their eyes on commuters as a possible source of labor.

Railroad officials professed to be little concerned about their yard forces, upon announcement that 30 locals of the Railroad Yardmasters' association, claiming to have 2,500 members in the vicinity of New York, had voted not to strike. At the same time, the shop crafts executive council

met today but took no action other
than to call in the conference committee of one hundred. The committee, while having the power to call a
strike, also is expected to defer action
by calling in the 1,000 general chairmen for a meeting Friday, when the
mutual attitude of these groups will be made known.

The Maintenance of Way executive
council met only informally today,
the formal meeting coming tomorrow,
when all of the members are expected
to be present.

"I cannot speak for my entire organization now, but personally, I will
do what we do not do, that we would
never strike on the wage
question unless forced to, and that we will not go into any walk-out with
the brotherhoods unless we have definite promises of cooperation which
we have not been forthcoming
from them," said Mr. Smock.

Mr. Jewell repeated his statements
that he was opposed to the strike.

RECEPTION FOR PERSHING.

Paris, Oct. 19.—Some 1,500 persons including France's leading military figures, members of the diplomatic corps, representatives of the embassies and a large contingent of the American colony in Paris, attended the reception at the city hall in honor of General Pershing today.
Earlier today at the planting of an oak tree in honor of Franco-American amity in the Trocadero gardens, General Pershing threw in a shovelful of French soil, which he said "is also American soil because American blood was shed on it."

Demonstration in Brussels.

Brussels, Oct. 19.—Protests against the action of a Massachusetts court last summer in convicting Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, two Italian, of first degree murder, were voiced at a meeting of Belgian Communists here today. After the meeting, 200 persons joined in a procession to the American embassy, where they held a demonstration until they were dispersed by the police.

John F. Walsh, an organizer for the seaman's union, hinted that the railroads need not look to coastwise shipping lines to move any passengers stranded by the strike, as he said members of the union would refuse to man coastwise vessels in the event of a railroad strike.

The Association of Railway Executives issued a statement asserting that the public, "the real paymaster," could not afford rates necessitated by present labor costs, and calling upon all roads to publish statements of rate reductions made since the 12 per cent wage cut was ordered. In order to show that the roads were making sacrifices themselves and not putting the whole burden on labor.

34,000 EMPLOYEES VOTE
TO STICK WITH PENNSY

Philadelphia, Oct. 19.—The Pennsylvania railroad tonight made public a telegram received from the executive committee of the Pennsylvania System division, United Brotherhood Maintenance of Way Employees and Railroad Shop Laborers, that it had decided at a meeting in Wilmington, Del., today to take no part in the proposed railroad strike and that members of that organization would be notified to remain at work in the event of a walk-out. The telegram, signed by officials of the union, read as follows:

"We, the officers of the Pennsylvania System division, United Brotherhood Maintenance of Way Employees and Railroad Shop Laborers, Assembled at Wilmington, wish to inform you that we are taking no part in the proposed strike and will notify the members of the Pennsylvania system covered by our regulations to remain on their jobs and perform their own work."

The brotherhood claims a membership of about 34,000 men.

Students Offer Assistance.

Philadelphia, Oct. 19.—Agnes T.
Dice, president of the Reading railroad, announced today that students at Lehigh university have signified their willingness to keep trains running on the Reading railway in case of a strike. He was so informed, he said, in a telephone message from a committee of students, who said they were authorized to speak for the entire student body. The students assured Mr. Dice they would hold themselves at his call "to prevent public sufferings due to a tie-up of the road."

U. S. MUST MAINTAIN
PROTECTION OF SEAS

State Regent of D. A. R. Warns Against Movements for Unwarranted Disarmament

Rochester, Oct. 19.—Warning against movements for unwarranted disarmament was issued by Mrs. Charles W. Nash, state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, in her address at the opening of the silver anniversary convention of the state D. A. R. organization here today.

"One of the chief arguments today against a protective force," she said,
"is the enormous cost of armaments, the economic question should not be a deliberation and decision. Let us beware of false economy which might prevent the United States, with its immense seacoast, from maintaining adequate protection of the seas."

"What the coming disarmament congress means is the discussion of a possible disagreement on the limitation of armaments and this restraint the world sadly needs."

Touching the subject of immigration, Mrs. Nash commended the step congress had taken for its limitation and added, "Let us still go further until we choose from whom we shall have and that choice be made on the other side of the water."

Included among what she characterized as "sinister forces" at work against America's security, she mentioned the "sinister forces" of the alien, pointing to the "various forces in congress. Among the same forces, she mentioned the spirit of lawlessness, the decline of religion and increasing laxity of morals, the lack of biblical teaching in the public schools, and the disregard by good citizens of some laws which she said set a bad example."

STATE TO AID
THE JOBLESS

Mayors' Conference Pledges Itself to Carry Out Government Recommendations

LOCAL ACTION VITAL

Is First Essential to Solving Unemployment Problem, Prominent Speakers Declare

Albany, Oct. 19.—Officers and the advisory committee of the New York State Conference of Mayors and other city officials, in session here today for a day, adopted a resolution pledging their fullest cooperation to President Harding's conference on unemployment and support of the conference's recommendations. It also was decided at the conference to have the New York State Bureau of Municipal Information gather and distribute all plans for meeting the present unemployment situation in the various municipalities. This action was taken as the result of a conference earlier in the day, arranged by the Albany Chamber of Commerce, and attended by representatives of nearly every city in the state. Those present included mayors, corporation counsels, school superintendents, and members of civic organizations.

Special stress was laid by the speakers at the conference, Governor Miller and Colonel Arthur Woods of New York, chairmen of the committee on civic and emergency measures of the national unemployment conference, on the necessity of each locality doing all in its power to solve its own unemployment situation.

Can't Disregard Plain Truth.

"While there was no occasion for grave alarm because already there was evidence of improvement in the unemployment situation, Governor Miller said "we should be foolish if we disregarded the plain truth that there must be some remedy for the unemployment problem and that the severity of winter is daily becoming nearer."

Preparedness, therefore, was urged by the governor, who said "it is a good deal better to put forth extra effort which perhaps may never be expended, than it is to be confronted with a situation which you are not ready to meet."

The threat of tie-up of the country's transportation system was referred to by the governor as an example of the necessity of preparedness. "We all hope," he added, "that that will not occur, but we certainly would be very foolish if we sat idly by in the face of what is occurring, in the expectation that it would not be necessary to do anything."

Colonel Woods said that the unemployment problem must be faced with optimism but not with that kind of irresponsible optimism that assumes that everything will be all right and thinks nothing about it. There are elements in the immediate emergency, Colonel Woods said, which can be met only by local neighborhood action.
The only cure, he declared, is work.

POLICEMAN SHOT
ARRESTING NEGRO

Louis Lively Confesses to Murder of Girl, But Implicates Wife Also

Mount Holly, N. J., Oct. 19.—Louis Lively, the negro who is alleged to have confessed that he killed seven-year-old Matilda Russo at East Moorestown last June, was brought here late today from Bridgeton and locked up in the county jail. He was arrested earlier in the day at Vin-eland after shooting a policeman.

Prosecutor Kelsey said tonight Lively had supplemented his earlier confession with a statement implicating his wife. She took no part in the actual killing, the negro was quoted as having said, but has known since the night of the crime that he slew the little girl. After burying the mutilated body in his cellar, Lively told the prosecutor that he went to Bridgeton, where his wife was staying, and told her what he had done.
He did not tell her, however, he said, what disposition was made of the body. In view of this statement, Kelsey said he would ask the grand jury, which recently indicted Lively on the charge of murder, to return a similar indictment against his wife. Mrs.
Lively was arrested shortly after the child's body was found and held as a material witness.

In a press conference today, the police said Lively told them he had returned to Bridgeton after wandering through Canada and New England for more than four months, to kill a policeman who had treated him cruelly while arresting him several years ago.
He is reported to have said he did not mean to kill the Russo child, but that he became angry when he caught her taking pudding from his kitchen table and struck her with a heavy oak stick. The blow was heavier than he had intended, he said. After he found she was dead, he told the authorities, he slashed the body with his pocket knife and buried it in his cellar. He denied having assaulted the child before he killed her.

The condition of Asa Wilson, the policeman shot while taking part in the capture of Lively, was reported tonight to be grave. Physicians said he had but slight chance for recovery.

PULLMAN DIVIDEND.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—The Pullman company today declared the usual riod ending November 15 and February 15.

PORTUGUESE GOVERNMENT
QUITS FOLLOWING COUP

London, Oct. 20.—A military movement against the Portuguese government broke out in Lisbon yesterday (Wednesday), according to a Vigo dispatch to the London Times. The troops seized strategic positions in the city and environs.
The Portuguese government has resigned as a result of a successful military movement without bloodshed, says a Reuters dispatch from Lisbon. A new ministry will probably be formed with the ex-revolu-tionist, Manuel Coelho, as premier.

GOVERNOR OPPOSES
ST. LAWRENCE CANAL

Tells Inspection Party New York State Barge Canal Is the Natural Water Course

Syracuse, Oct. 19.—Members of congress, state officials and business men were inspecting the New York state barge canal system were guests tonight at a banquet given by the Syracuse chamber of commerce. Governor Nathan L. Miller and Representatives C. L. Beedle of Maine, M. C.
Lounkin of Nebraska and L. W. Fairfield of Indiana, addressed the gathering. Governor Miller announced his opposition to the proposed St. Lawrence canalization plan.

"It would not be difficult, if it were a useful thing to do, to construct a ship canal from Oswego to the Hudson," the governor said. "It is a practical thing as an engineering proposition, but I want to say to the gentlemen from congress that if congress wants to go into the business of building a ship canal to connect the Great Lakes with the sea, you have got here already started a natural water course, and come and take it and develop it to your hearts' content. Personally, I do not believe that such an enterprise would be justified. I do not believe if it were converted into a ship canal that ocean ships would ever navigate it."

PEACE WILL SOLVE
LABOR SITUATION

Good Understanding Among Nations Is First Essential, Lloyd George Declares

London, Oct. 19.—Following closely upon the British government's announced determination to aid in solving the unemployment situation by the extension of extraordinarily large credits and the declaration that no Briton is to starve, David Lloyd George, the prime minister, delivered a notable address in parliament today, outlining the government's policy both with regard to trade and unemployment.

The premier declared that the entire situation was the result of the World war and that a good understanding between nations, together with trade rehabilitation, was the essential remedy.

In outlining the government's proposals to alleviate unemployment, Mr.
Lloyd George made the following striking declaration:

"Peace and a good understanding among nations is vital. Let us get out of the atmosphere where if you talk about a German without a trace on your brow you are no patriot. Trade cannot start in such an atmosphere.
If you intervene to make peace, your motives are misunderstood; but if Great Britain will not do it, who will? We stand for stability. We want to see the nations begin again the tasks of peace."

Mr. Lloyd George spiritfully justified the steps the government already had taken to meet the unemployment problem. He said the government proposed conditionally to guarantee interest on loans aggregating 25,000-000 pounds for use in capital undertaking providing employment for the purchase of material from manufacturers, and also to allocate 10,000,000 pounds for the assistance of relief work, and later the establishment of a fund for workers' dependents.

He also proposed further assistance for state-aided emigration of former service men; the allocation of 10,000-000 pounds for relief work in forestry and drainage.

Concerning proposed guarantees of interest on loans raised by any dominion or colonial government, or any foreign government or local authorities, for essential enterprises, such as electrification and waterways, which would provide immediate employment in the United Kingdom, the premier explained that the total liability of the government would be 25,000-000 pounds and that a committee of men of high authority and knowledge would be created to administer the scheme.

RICKARD SEEKS DEMPSEY'S O. K. OF BOUT WITH WILLARD

boxing promoter, conferred with Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, here today in an effort to obtain Dempsey's signature to a contract for a championship contest with Jess Willard next July.
The men will conf. again tomorrow, Rickard said.

Willard already has signed for the posed for the contest, and Rickard is undecided as to where it will be held.

SENATE PONCES ON TAX REVISION BILL

Democrats and Republicans Join in Assault on "Worst Measure Ever"

Washington, Oct. 19.—The compromise tax revision bill was assailed today in the senate by both Democrats and Republicans.

Senator Underwood of Alabama, the Democratic leader, characterized the measure as the worst ever presented to congress. No one understood it, he declared, except the few treasury experts who drew it, and he predicted that if the bill becomes law, the courts will be several years in interpreting it.

Charging the Republicans with failure to be candid with the American people, the Democratic leader said they were trying to have it go out that taxes were to be reduced when, as a matter of fact, they would be increased through the operation of the administrative provisions of the revenue measure and the proposed American valuation plan in the tariff bill.

Senator Moses, Republican of New Hampshire, paid his respects to the committee bill and also to the amendments sponsored by the agricultural bloc, which he termed "Econ-Chap-Kian," a play on the names of Senators Kenyon of Iowa and Capper of Kansas, leaders in the bloc. Endorsing the Smoot manufacturers' sales tax, Senator Moses declared the committee bill "plainly was drawn under the inspiring inspiration of the slogan, 'Sink the rich.'"

Going down to cases, the senate, after a long technical discussion, voted down, 155 to 12, a committee amendment under which treasury experts had figured the government would receive taxes on about 80 per cent of the earnings of "close" corporations accumulated prior to March 1, 1913.

Senator La Follette, Republican of Wisconsin, renewed his fight against provisions of the bill which would strip from taxation that part of the income of foreign traders and foreign trade corporations derived from sources outside the United States.

Senator McCumber, Republican of North Dakota, again defended the provisions on behalf of the finance committee, contending that they were necessary in order that American corporations should not be at a loss in dealing with foreign corporations.

IRISH DECISION
MAY BE HASTENED

Leaders Hope to Finish Up Negotiations Before Lloyd George Leaves for America

(By The Associated Press)

London, Oct. 19.—Prime Minister Lloyd George's decision to go to the Washington conference is having its effect upon the progress of the conference with the Irish leaders, which has been in session here for the past week endeavoring to solve the Irish question.

Government circles today expressed belief that the plan whereby the various points, particularly the conditions named in Mr. Lloyd George's dominant home rule proposal are to be referred to sub-committees, makes it quite safe for him to proceed to America. On the other hand, Sinn Fein leaders are believed to be determined to ascertain before his departure whether it is to be "peace or war." Some of them say that none of the critical points have been touched thus far, which fact, they claim, accounts for the smoothness of the sessions to date; and they object to these points being kept in the background indefinitely.

PLAN PENSION FOR BLIND.

Rochester, Oct. 19.—The tentative draft of a bill providing a state pension for blind persons was approved at a meeting of the executive committee of the New York state organization of workers for the blind here today. Under the proposed bill, blind persons, on applying and proving their disability, would receive a state pension. The amount they were able to earn by their own efforts, however, would be deducted.

Valet Who Opens Package Sent to Official Residence in Paris Is Seriously Injured

Threats Received

Attack Believed Outcome of Conviction of Two Communists in Massachusetts

Paris, Oct. 19.—A small oblong package wrapped in plain white paper, tied with a strong cord and marked "perfidie," lay on a table in the American embassy all this morning.
It was addressed personally to the American ambassador, Myron T. Herrick, and had been delivered by registered post.

Thinking it was a gift, the ambassador's secretary, Lawrence Norton, carried it to the ambassador's residence, the former home of Prince Jacques de Broglie, at 18 Avenue de Messine. Early in the evening, the ambassador's valet saw the package on the desk and following custom, started to open it. The removal of the paper revealed a small pasteboard box, such as might be used for holding soap. Almost immediately a spring was released, and as the valet lifted the lid, he heard a familiar noise, which quickly brought back the days when he was a bomber in the British army. He hurled the box through the open bathroom door and ran from the room. The bomb exploded in the doorway, two fragments hitting the valet in the back, although not seriously injuring him.

Ambassador Escaped Danger.

The ambassador, his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Farnely Herrick, and her seven year old son, were just at this time ascending the stairway, preparing to enter Mr. Herrick's suite.
The valet came running out as the ambassador reached the top.

The ambassador motored immediately to the Hotel Crillon to ask General Pershing the best thing to do, and the prefect of police was summoned.

The bomb is believed by the police to have been sent by French Communists in protest against the conviction of two Communists in the United States charged with murder; it contained the deadliest of explosives, according to the prefect and his staff of bomb experts.

Proof of the strength of the explosives is shown by the fact that

FEDERAL ECONOMY MADE STRIDES IN SEPTEMBER

Washington, Oct. 19.—Ordinary expenditures of the government fell off by nearly $25,000,000 during September as compared with August, according to the monthly statement issued tonight by the treasury, while payments on the public debt increased by more than $300,000,000.

During September, ordinary expenditures totaled $268,523,932, as against $293,157,847 in August, while public debt disbursements aggregated $1,173,842,744, compared with $237,519,233 in the previous month. Redemption of certificates of indebtedness amounting to $1,051,963,950 accounted for the bulk of the public debt disbursements.

WHEN A GIRL MARRIES, HER TROUBLES BEGIN

New York, Oct. 19.—The marriage of Miss Charlotte Boye, champion swimmer, to Henry W. Clune, Jr., Rochester, was announced today when the couple left for Atlantic City on their honeymoon. They were married Monday.

Shortly after the departure of the couple on their wedding trip, a deputy sheriff called at the bride's home to serve notice of a $620 judgment obtained by a dentist for service rendered the aquatic star.

FEMININE INTUITION LEADS TO JAIL BIRD'S CAPTURE

Newark, N. J., Oct. 18.—The feminine intuition of Alice Donnelly, 19, led today to the arrest of Delavan J. Rogers, who, the police say, admitted that he was a fugitive from East Bridgewater, Mass., where he was serving a life sentence for murder. Rogers, posing as a business man from Rochester, N. Y., offered a check for $500 to Miss Donnelly's father, a real estate operator. Then he wanted to borrow $300 to get home with Miss Donnelly and ran around to the bank and telephoned Rochester. Rogers' arrest followed.

DEALINGS MODERATE ON STOCK EXCHANGE

Market Gives No Manifestation of More Encouraging Railroad Situation

New York, Oct. 19.—The stock market today gave no positive outward manifestation of the more encouraging aspects of the railroad situation.

Dealings were moderate and short covering in certain branches of the list. Pullman for example, was offset by professional pressure, while other quarters, notably steel, leather, rubbers and chemicals.

Declaration of the regular dividend on Pullman for the two quarters not only cancelled yesterday's sharp recession but left a substantial net gain. Other equipments and most of the steels were heavy, however, in anticipation of poor statements for the year's third quarter.

Rails and related variable gains, in no important case extending beyond one or two points. Specialties of the types represented by Virginia Iron, Coal and Coke and National Cloak and Suit preferred were decidedly strong on limited transactions.

The only feature of the call money market, which opened at 4 1/2 per cent but dropped to 4 per cent by noon, was the abundance of offerings.

Some of the Liberty issues hardened materially and other domestic issues were mostly better. Among international issues, several of the European municipals strengthened, but Mexican 4s and 5s were weak with Cuba Cane 7s.

STURGES-NOXON WEDDING.
Popular Hobart Couple United in Holy Church Ceremony.

Hobart, Oct. 19. — About 80 relatives and friends gathered at about 10 o'clock at the Hobart Methodist Episcopal church to witness the marriage of Maude Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Noxon, to Frank H. Sturges. The church was tastefully decorated with evergreen and maple leaves.

The bridal couple, attended by the bride's father, Mr. Noxon, Miss Helen Adams, as bridesmaid, and Ben M. Flanagan of Oneonta as best man, entered to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march and took their places under an arch of evergreen and white satin ribbon. Rev. A. M. Wilkins officiated, the ring ceremony being used. During the ceremony, music was rendered by the pianist, Mrs. DeForest Tryon.

The bride was crowned in white georgette and satin and wore a veil of white tulle. Her bouquet was of white roses. Miss Adams wore Nile green organdy and silver lace, with hat to match. She carried pink roses. On the completion of the ceremony, congratulations were extended, after which a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, about 40 people being present. The wedding breakfast was served under the direction of Mrs. Milan Taylor, caterers.

The bride's traveling suit was of brown broadcloth, trimmed with fur and she wore a hat of brown velvet. She was the recipient of many useful and beautiful gifts, including silver, linen and a large sum of money.

Mr. and Mrs. Sturges left by automobile for an extended trip through New York and New Jersey, after which they will reside in Stamford township, where Mr. Sturges owns a large farm. Their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes for their future happiness.

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—Approximately 250,000 silver dollars are being made daily at the San Francisco mint under recent instructions to speed up production, according to Superintendent M. J. Kelly.

Every department is working to its full capacity and the mint is so busy that the plant officials have suspended, for a time, the rules permitting visitors to inspect the establishment.

According to Mr. Kelly, the coinage of silver dollars is being increased in order that the government might save interest on short term treasury notes.

HIGH FIGURES FOR GASOLINE.

Consumption of gasoline in the United States reached the highest figure on record in the month of August, when over 685,000,000 gallons were used, according to statistics compiled by the United States Bureau of Mines. The heavy increase in consumption of the motor fuel is responsible for a continuation of the decline in the stocks on hand at the refineries, despite an increased production. The daily average production of gasoline for August was 13,321,245 gallons, an increase of 285,000 gallons per day over the production for July and an increase of 531,000 gallons per day over the average for the year 1920. Stocks of gasoline on August 31 amounted to 527,645 gallons, a decrease of 116,000,000 gallons during the month. Exports for August amounted to 47,830,586 gallons, an increase of 75 per cent over the exports for July. Shipments to insular possessions amounted to 1,921,692 gallons. Total production for the month amounted to 431,577,195 gallons. The number of petroleum refineries in operation was 239, the same as in July.

The production of kerosene reported to the Bureau of Mines shows an increase in the daily average output for August of 159,000 gallons. Stocks of this oil were decreased 22,000,000 gallons, while the exports were increased by 20,000,000 more than the exports for July. For the month of August, the daily average production of gas and fuel oil was 742,000 gallons less than the production for July. Stocks of gas and fuel oil during August decreased by 26,000,000 gallons. The daily average production of lubricating oil during the month of August was 19,000 gallons larger than for the month of July. Stocks of this product were 16,000,000 gallons smaller than at the end of July. Exports for August were approximately the same as for July.

FARM BUREAU MEETING

Seven Meetings Scheduled for Early November—Rush F. Lewis and Jared VanWagonen Speakers.

In the past it has been the custom of the Farm Bureau to hold at least one meeting in each community in the county during the year. This means a large number of relatively small meetings and especially so at times of inclement weather.

In view of the fact that the best speakers cannot be secured for these meetings, the board of directors of the Farm Bureau decided to arrange for a series of regional Farm Bureau meetings which will be county-wide and located so that they will be accessible to all in the entire county.

V. D. Robinson of Edinboro, a member of the board of directors, was designated to take charge of this work. As a result, seven meetings have been scheduled as follows: At Edinboro, November 1st at Schuyler Lake, evening of same day at Edinboro; afternoon of November 2nd, Gilbertsville; evening, November 2nd, Milford; afternoon, November 3rd, Worcester; evening, November 3rd, Cherry Valley; evening, November 4th, Otego.

Rush F. Lewis of the Dairymen's league will speak at all of the meetings except Otego and Jared VanWagonen will speak there. Both of these are powerful, eloquent speakers. Mr. VanWagonen has a state-wide reputation and Mr. Lewis held speaker for the league. Is one of the best speakers today appearing before farmers' meetings. To hear either of these men is a treat one cannot afford to miss.

At each meeting where facilities will permit, a reel of moving pictures on the ex-warehouse, one which has been prepared by the department of agriculture to assist in a campaign for its eradication, will be shown. Some one will also be designated to speak on the work of the State and American Farm Bureau associations.

MAN MAKES 36 KINDS OF JELLIES

Wins First Prize at Two Fairs With the Use of Certo.

At the Eastern States exposition, held recently at Springfield, Mass., and later at the Waltham fair, Ralph B. Conder of Milstone farm, Southboro, Mass., won blue ribbons and first prizes for a display of 36 different kinds of jelly made by himself.

Many expert jelly makers, women with a long experience in this old time art, examined the display with much wonderment and envy. Such unusual flavors as lime, maraschino, mint, rhubarb, grenadine, banana, pistachio, maple, and many others were very remarkable. Mr. Conder was obliged to answer many questions and said the big secret of his success was the new Certo process of making jellies. According to Mr. Conder, anyone can now make jam or jelly from any fruit—fresh, dried or canned or any fruit juice, in a few minutes, with the Certo process. Any flavor can also be added to Certo, sugar and water. In fact, Mr. Conder believes the only limitation to the number of jellies possible with Certo is the number of flavors at hand.

Second Crop Apples.

John Parish of 165 Chestnut street brought to The Star office last evening a branch of a yellow transparent apple tree, upon which were an apple blossom and four buds and also a number of second crop yellow transparent apples. More of the second crop of apples are to be found upon the tree. Yellow transparents are one of the earliest apples, maturing about the time of the red astrachan. The fruit is no doubt a result of the early spring and equally late fall—a condition without a parallel in the memory of the oldest inhabitants.

THE PRESS AND THE PUBLIC

Big Verdicts Against Motorists.

Two recent suits for damages arising from injuries inflicted on young girls by automobiles in the highway have resulted in notably high verdicts for the sufferers. In a New York state supreme court the jury awarded $60,000 to a little girl for the loss of both hands through being run over by a truck while she was playing in the street. In New Jersey a jury made up of six women and six men decided that a girl whose legs were broken by an automobile was entitled to $30,000 from the owner of the car, while $17,000 was given to her father to pay the surgeon's bills which he incurred in her behalf.

Appeals will undoubtedly be taken from these verdicts and new trials will be demanded. It is not necessary to speculate on the outcome of these appeals. However, to see in the acts of the jury a positive reflection of strong public sentiment in favor of curbing reckless motor car drivers and making the highways safe for everybody. In one of the cases under consideration a corporation was the defendant; in the other an individual owned the motor car which did the damage. It is apparent that no question of prejudice was involved.

It is undeniable that the constantly growing list of deaths in street accidents due to reckless motor driving has produced a public feeling which upholds large verdicts against blame-worthy car owners when they get into court.—[New York Herald.]

Railway Strikes.

The business of the country cannot be made to suffer simply for the purpose of paying a certain class of employees high wages. Railroad labor has got to get in line with conditions just the same as all other classes of labor and general business. A grave responsibility rests upon labor and an equally grave responsibility rests upon the railroads in meeting the issue. Although it would be a poor time for the unions to raise an issue, for they have only to refer to the experience of the British mine workers for an example of what it would be likely to result in. Strikes in England at the present time are entirely out of fashion. If the railway union officials are wise, they will offer no resistance to the program laid out by the railway executives, a program dictated not by selfishness and greed but by economic necessity.—[New York Commercial.]

Health Graduates.

The plan of the United States Bureau of Education to enroll the school children of the country and their teachers in a gigantic health crusade is a progressive step. If it succeeds, health will be one of the fundamental subjects of the school curriculum. Much could be done by such an innovation, and the unsatisfactory physical condition of the nation's school children indicates that the attempt should be made.—[New York Tribune.]

Stamping Out Hazing.

The Beaver county judge who imposed fines, costs, doctor bills and bonds upon high school students arraigned for hazing, denouncing the practice as "a filthy, dangerous, risky and cheap form of sport" that should be stamped out by school authorities, has the support of adult public opinion.—[Pittsburgh Dispatch.]

The Ku Klux Trumpery.

The most important information to be gathered from Washington dispatches at this moment is that the Ku Klux Klan, with all its pomp and devilities, has been permitted to take up entirely too much of the valuable time of government officials who have much more pressing business clamoring for their attention. The maudlin trumpery of the "invisible empire" should never have been allowed to reach the dignity of a congressional investigation.—[Philadelphia Record.]

Mr. Debs Prefers Imprisonment.

Apparently Mr. Debs may be a free man whenever he chooses to promise, if he is released from Atlanta, that he will not resume the activities which sent him there. If he prefers to insist upon an unconditional pardon, he will still have the opportunity to pose as a martyr. It is difficult to see how the government could release him upon any other terms, and it did, and he repeated his offense, how could it fail to prosecute him again?—[Philadelphia Inquirer.]

BIRDS ALREADY ON WING

Fall Migration Coming Earlier Than Usual In All Parts of Country.

The annual flight of wild game birds southward from their breeding grounds is on and is ahead this year of the usual time such flights start, according to the Biological Survey, United States Department of Agriculture. Many more thousands of birds are now on the wing, the department states, than have flown south for years.

All indications are that the flight will not only furnish hunters excellent sport, but that there will have to be little waiting after the open season starts. No reason is assigned by the department for the earliness of the southern flight. Only the birds know.

The pintail and the teal already are on the wing. The mallard, the canvasback, the redhead, the wedge-tail, the black head and other later migrants soon will be on their way to warmer climes. Reports from almost every section tell of the great size of the flights already under way.

From the sandhills of Nebraska come reports of larger numbers of ducks than seen for years. Little Goose lake in South Dakota, visited recently by a representative of the Biological Survey, was reported to be literally alive with ducks. From almost every section of Iowa ducks are being shot. In the Great River section of Wisconsin there are said to be more ducks than ever before. Many more black ducks are reported in Maine than were seen last season. Along the New Jersey coast there also has been a big increase.

PEOPLE'S PARLIAMENT.

The Star declines all responsibility in regard to the views of correspondents expressed in this column and will not be held as endorsing them because publishing them. This column is intended to be for the people's use, and the views expressed herein are those of the contributors. The Star assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of the statements or the opinions of the contributors, and will not be held responsible for the same.

Mr. Hick's Personal Views.

Editor of The Star: With the Community Chest campaign approaching, I wish to voice my personal belief that nothing is more important now than that the campaign should be a complete success, nothing more disastrous to the welfare of Oneonta if the campaign should fail in the slightest respect. Chamber of Commerce members may be interested in my opinion that this health and social welfare work lays the foundation of a good city, that none of it can be eliminated without harm to Oneonta and that if through this work Oneonta does not lay and maintain a good foundation, efforts to promote the civic and business interests of the community for a better Oneonta can never, in the last analysis, be successful. A city built by its citizens, the spirit of the city is the spirit of its citizens as expressed from their souls and if the health and souls of its citizens and growing generation are not protected by this wonderful health and social work, then the soul and spirit of the city will ultimately die.

Another matter, Oneonta should be duly impressed with the necessity of fully supporting its own relief work before contributing to work elsewhere. Two workers of the American Relief Mission are in the vicinity, bound from Binghamton to Troy and collecting funds for their work in Troy. This organization does work similar to the Salvation Army and in some cities the work is duplicated. Any contributions received by these workers will go for work in Troy. Oneonta does not ask Troy to support our charities and Troy is large enough to support its own, as is any other city and local citizens are sufficiently in sympathy with the work of the Salvation Army to realize local needs along those lines.

I was quoted in yesterday's Star as saying that "I consider the amendment regarding civil service preference for ex-servicemen a very wise measure myself, but cannot say what action the Chamber of Commerce will take on it." This statement I never made nor have I expressed my personal opinion as to this amendment. As this alleged statement set forth, the Chamber of Commerce has taken no action for or against the amendment. If any action is taken, that will be decided by its Board of Directors. I am a member of the Chamber of Commerce and I have nothing to do with it. I have no opinion, official or personal, to publicly express on the amendment and how I vote in the election will be my own business. I am a member of the Oneonta Post of American Legion which has approved the amendment. Enough said. Faithfully yours, Everett Hicks.

Not Ashamed of Oneonta.

Editor Star: Permit me to express my surprise and regret that, even over the signature of a correspondent, The Star should permit anyone to say that unless this community responds with all the funds that the various organizations, some of them quite new and untitled, have asked for and the promoters of the so-called Community Chest are demanding that Oneonta will fall into a degraded state from which it will take years to recover.

There are many in this city, I will venture to say, equally interested in civic and moral welfare and quite as consistent supporters of good morals and welfare work, who resent this statement.

For one, I want to utter a protest and to say that Oneonta is as clean morally and even other ways as most communities of its size and more attractive in many ways than the great majority of them. Has it come to pass that at the behest of a few we must give large sums to new organizations which have not as yet given proof of their utility or value?

I want to be recorded as one citizen not ashamed of Oneonta. If we must choose between giving support to all that is projected as worthy as are many of the organizations which have been set to join in the chest project—or being branded by some as disloyal citizens, I shall have to accept such brand. Of one thing I am sure, that I will not be alone, for many citizens with whom I have talked feel exactly as I do about this project. It strikes me that the present is a time for sane giving and prudent, economical expenditure of all that our citizens can afford to give for humane and relief work. Let's not be carried off our feet by this "Hurrah Boys" appeal.

Respectfully, Citizen.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has been made easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that this immediate relief given is almost like magic. It is very easily prepared, and there is nothing better for coughs, croup, whooping cough, etc., than a pinch of Pinex, then add plain sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint will save about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and disappear. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

VERDICT NO CAUSE OF ACTION

VERDICT OF JURY IN CASE OF RODENBAUGH VS PEASLEE.

Case of Willis S. Girdley Against Charles Mann, a Maryland Action for Recovery for Services Now on Trial—Goes to Jury Thursday Morning—Grand Jury May Not Finish This Week.

No cause of action was the verdict of the jury in the case of William B. Rodenbaugh and another against Ceylon W. Peaslee, which was commenced before Justice Tuttle in supreme court at Cooperstown on Tuesday and was given to the jury after the attorneys had summed up yesterday morning. The verdict was reached after a comparatively short deliberation. This was an action in which the plaintiff sought to recover damages alleged breach of contract it being alleged that the defendant sold 20 heifers guaranteeing that they would fatten before a certain time. The defendant denied any such guarantee. Lynn W. Hathaway was the attorney for the plaintiff and City Judge Frank C. Huntington for the defendant.

The next case moved for trial was that of William S. Girdley vs Charles Mann, the parties residing in Maryland. The plaintiff seeks to recover $388 for services rendered. According to his testimony he was employed by the defendant at lumbering and other work and that the amount named is a balance due him. Mann alleges that he has paid Girdley in full for his labors. The defense swore a half dozen witnesses other than Hamm himself and the plaintiff four in addition to himself.

The evidence was presented during the afternoon and the attorneys E. R. Campbell for the plaintiff and James P. Friery for the defendant, summed up the case. The court will charge the jury this morning to submit it to them.

The next case on the calendar is that of Karl P. Stack against Mary L. Newman, for alleged breach of warranty. It is understood that this case will go over the term owing to the illness of one of the plaintiff's witnesses.

Other cases on the day calendar are Richard Grundman vs Melvin A. Mann, Harry E. Green vs Laura J. Green and James J. Hathaway vs Robert S. Palmer.

It was said about the court house yesterday that it was doubtful if the grand jury will be able to finish its work the present week.

AUTO ACCIDENT AT EMMONS

Car Crashes Into Fence—Another Turas Three Times Round—One Woman Injured.

At about half past seven o'clock last evening, as the Worcester bus, on its way to this city, had about reached Emmons, it suddenly slowed up. Behind there were several cars following in close order and as there was no room to pass, the nearest car, a Buick owned by M. M. Jewell of Milford, slowed sharply around as the brakes were applied and crashed into the fence on the south side of the road. Though the car was not overturned, it was quite badly damaged, one wheel being smashed and other injuries received. In the car were Mr. and Mrs. Jewell and Mr. and Mrs. John Woodcock, also of Milford. None of them were injured save Mrs. Woodcock, who had her right arm seriously bruised, but not broken.

A second car, a Ford coupe, was just behind Mr. Jewell and the sudden application of the brakes caused this one to make three complete circles on a highway which the rain had rendered slippery before it landed headed west on the north side of the road. Fortunately it kept on its wheels and was undamaged. A third car, a Buick, owned by Mr. Jewell and his party to Oneonta and Mr. Chamberlin of the Rex garage brought the car to the city for repairs. Altogether, in view of the rain, the darkness and other conditions, the outcome of the accidents was very fortunate.

EDWARDS AWARDED VERDICT

NO FEAR OF FAMINE IN CITY

FOOD STOCKS ON HAND WOULD PROBABLY OUTLAST RAILROAD STRIKE.

Local Dealers Have Enough Staple Supplies to Last City for at Least a Month—Fuel Stocks Unusually Large—No Cause for Worry if Threatened Railroad Tieup Should Develop.

Recent developments make it seem improbable that there will be a railroad strike of sufficient magnitude to tie up traffic for any length of time but there is the possibility and that possibility brings up the interesting question of how Oneonta would fare in regard to means of sustenance if it were impossible to bring foodstuffs into the city by train. A Star representative spent some time yesterday going over the situation with local wholesalers, discovering that there is a sufficient quantity of the necessities of life, including fuel, in the city to last for at least a month and probably longer. That there could be a complete railroad tieup of a month's duration seems beyond question. Residents need have little to fear in regard to the local food supply. Of course the supply of many articles would soon be exhausted, but the quantity of staples on hand is ample.

Representatives of the local flour and feed concerns state that they have enough flour on hand to last nearly two months. All of the companies ship much flour out of the city and in the event of a strike the foreign shipments would be available for local consumption. The Elmore Milling company has a large amount of raw wheat and corn on hand which could be ground into flour and feed if necessary. The feed outlook is even more favorable. With rail shipments out of the city impossible, the Elmore Milling company would have feed of various kinds enough to last the farmers of the vicinity for many months. Morris Bros. and A. E. Ford & Son have also large stocks on hand.

There is sufficient amount of staple groceries on hand in the warehouses of the Oneonta Grocery company and J. O. Rowe & Co. to last at least a month. The latter concern has at least a normal supply and the Grocery company has better than a normal stock for this time of the year. There would undoubtedly soon be a shortage of such fresh fruit as would not be brought in from surrounding farms, but the lack of fruit, a quasi-luxury, would not be important.

The meat supply would probably fall first. It is impossible to keep a large supply of meat on hand and the amount in stock now would probably not last much over a week. However, with milk shipments impossible farmers would probably be forced to sell some stock which would find its way into the local market. Naturally, being in the center of the largest dairy district in the world, the city will lack fresh milk. Farmers would without question turn some of their milk into butter and cheese.

Inquiry among the coal dealers reveals the fact that there is an abnormally large supply of coal on hand in the city at the present time. The Oneonta Ice and Fuel company and the Oneonta Coal and Supply company have approximately 1,500 tons each of an amount which is taxing the capacity of their chutes and storehouses. The other companies have at least 500 tons between them, making a total of over 3,000 tons on hand. Many people have already stocked their cellars in anticipation of a hard winter so it would seem that the coal supply is sufficient to outlast any strike of reasonable length. Many people are buying heavy stocks of the fuel in preparation for a possible shortage but no attempt has yet been made to limit the amount sold to a customer. In the event of a strike, a rationing system would undoubtedly be worked out.

The gasoline situation is uncertain because of the enormously increased use that would be made of motor vehicles in case railroad travel is impossible but there seems no cause for worry. Dealers have good stocks of gas at present and it would be possible to secure further amounts by means of automobile tanks from nearby cities having refineries connected by pipe lines with large supplies of the crude oil.

No embargo on freight has yet been imposed by the railroads, although such a step will undoubtedly soon be taken if today's all important conference between the Labor board and the "big five" affords no hope of an amicable settlement.

THE GEE VEE FOLLIES.

Big Theatrical Attraction Monday Night at Oneonta Theatre.

Everyone who has been following the success of late theatrical attractions is familiar with the Greenwich Village Follies, which began its existence as a sort of high-brow musical review in the Greenwich Village section of New York, and then moved uptown to a Broadway theatre, when the most blasé and bored of audiences gripped the revue to their hearts and called it blessed.

John Murray Anderson is responsible for the heralded artistry of the production. While the general structure of the piece is said to follow the conventional lines of a typical review, the treatment, accompaniment and investment are said to be anything but conventional. There is a prologue, two acts and 14 scenes. The prologue is a travesty on New York's subway troubles. There is a burlesque of the modern "bedroom farce" and a scene in Webster Hall, the dance rendezvous of the past generation of gentle folk in the Greenwich Village.

This most talked of show in America will be the attraction at the Oneonta theatre next Monday night. Gate receipts for an engagement of one night only. See display ad. on page 2 of this issue.

Wake 'Em Up.

Those who can, do; those who can't, whine, fuss and find fault. Say, you'd be doing a bully good thing if you'd tell the great mass of those who can't and won't think how by simply checking away the small amount of 25 cents each day and placing it with me monthly, I'd safely hand them $2,000 each at the end of 139 months. I've been safely doing this for 33 years and to the amount of several million dollars, without the loss of a dollar placed with me and am still on the job to the tune of four million more. Let's wake 'em up. I'm the safe and sane Oneonta Building and Loan association. advt. 11

WINGAR STILL INURED

D. & H. Signal Maintainer in Fox Hospital With Badly Mangled Foot, Which Surgeon Hopes to Save.

Wingar C. Still, 26 years old, of Colliers, is in the Fox Memorial hospital suffering with a painfully and perhaps seriously injured foot. It was said last night at the hospital that he was doing as well as could be expected, but it was yet undecided whether the foot could be saved.

Still is employed as a signal maintainer on the Delaware and Hudson railroad, his duties requiring him to cover the section of the road between Colliers and Schenectady. He was on the return trip yesterday from Schenectady to Colliers with his gasoline truck car and was near the latter place when the accident occurred about noon. The exact circumstances surrounding the accident could be learned neither from friends of the injured man or from the local railroad offices. It is reported, however, that the gasoline car overturned and pinned Still's right foot underneath.

The injured man was brought to the hospital in his own automobile, with his wife at the wheel. He was weak from loss of blood when they reached the hospital and he was given immediate attention by Dr. A. W. Cutler. An examination of the injured right foot revealed that no bones were broken, but the fleshy part of the foot was badly mangled. The young man, who is a veteran of the World War, has numerous friends in Oneonta who will regret his misfortune.

DR. HENRY HAWN COMING.

To Address Another Community Gathering on Sunday Next.

Dr. Henry Gaines Hawn of New York will address another community gathering to be held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Oneonta theatre. A concert of sacred music will precede the talk.

Everyone who heard Dr. Hawn's masterful address on "The Soul of Things" at the time of the Chamber of Commerce last January, seemed to voice unanimous sentiment that it was one of the most dramatic and convincing speeches ever delivered in Oneonta. Many will be glad of an opportunity to hear him again.

Dr. Hawn conducts a school of dramatic expression and public speaking at Carnegie hall in New York. He is recognized as one of the most appealing orators in the country today. Brief explanations of the Community Chest and the ten health and welfare organizations will be given also at Sunday's meeting.

STRIKE ORDERS ISSUED

D. & H. GENERAL CHAIRMEN OF BROTHERHOODS ISSUED ORDERS YESTERDAY.

Headquarters of the Board of General Chairmen will be at Albany—Hope Still Expressed by Men's Representatives That Some Settlement May Be Reached.

Specific orders for a strike on the railroads of the Delaware and Hudson company extending from Rouses Point to Wilkes-Barre have been sent out by the local chairmen of the board of general chairmen of the brotherhoods for the entire system at Albany. The members of the system, those in Albany are George C. Paine of this city, chairman of the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors; F. W. Pouch, chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; I. O. LaChance, chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and Martin Deegan, chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

The orders as issued to the chairmen of the different local brotherhoods calls for the strike on the Delaware and Hudson lines to begin at 6 a. m. on the morning of November 1. This is 48 hours ahead of the time set for the strike of the New York Central lines.

It was also announced by the board of general chairmen that the strike orders were issued to stand unless countermanded. The chairmen are looking to the Chicago conference today and tomorrow in the hope of a settlement on lines of "peace with honor."

The orders were received in Oneonta last night. It is understood, and will be passed along to the men today and in the days that are to follow. The orders went out at the same time to officials of the Brotherhoods at Albany, Binghamton, Carbondale, Scranton, and points on the northern division.

The plans have been carefully prepared and officials say, will, as in the former strike on the D. & H. system which lasted but a very short time, be conducted orderly and without injury to the company's property if the men can prevent. The men will be required to report at the headquarters, which not unlikely will be at B. of R. T. hall, unless a larger hall is secured.

While the men here voted quite uniformly authorizing the strike and are a unit so far as observing it is called, there is still hope expressed by many that some adjustment will yet be reached and that the strike order will be rescinded before November 1.

GRACE THROUGH LOVE OF GOD

Bishop Nelson Delivers Impassioned Sermon Last Evening at St. James' Church — The World and the War and the Church and Its People.

Rev. Richard H. Nelson, Protestant Episcopal bishop of the diocese of Albany, was in Oneonta last evening, making his annual visit to the parish of St. James'. An unusual thing in connection with the meeting, which was well attended considering the unfavorable weather and the rainfall that had been for some time before the appointed hour, was the fact that the entire service was conducted by the bishop himself, no other clergyman being with him in the church.

Taking for his text the words of Paul in the last verse of the sixth chapter of Ephesians, which are also the last words of the epistle: "Grace be with all those that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity," the speaker emphasized the fact that the purpose of St. Paul was to set before the people God's plan, which is to bring all things together in unity under the dominion of Christ. The universe of God admits of much variety; no two blades of grass ever grow exactly alike, and no two individuals or nations ever have been inspired with the same belief and sentiment — never have been the same mental, moral, spiritual growth — but in the true sense they can be made one under the spiritual headship of Christ. St. Paul had no doubt as to the equality of Jew and Gentile; to his mind the wall between them had been broken down, but in the passing of the years there has been a falling off from his belief.

Looking back for three years to the days of the armistice, we recall that then we thought that war had become a thing of the past. We believed that some plan would be devised which would make war an impossibility. Our expectations have not been realized. Nations have not come together. Despite zealous efforts the definite end of war does not appear to be at hand. What we did not take into consideration were the differences which it will take long to overcome. They must be met with patience, they cannot be overcome by violence. The spirit of God works patiently but always toward the ultimate goal of perfection, and we should not be in haste. We should meet with one another, making concessions in the right spirit and leaving it to God to do the rest. In the combination of nations there was left out the divine principle, and the structure which was built stood to stand. It is a matter rather of life than of theory, and patience and trust in God are elements which cannot be overlooked. As for ourselves, we are not to have a merely sentimental vision of the risen Lord, but must conform our lives to his teachings.

In concluding his thoughtful and inspiring address, Bishop Nelson referred to the new sector who soon is to come to the local church, commending him to the society of which he will be the head and urging that, working together in unity, they strive for that condition of accord which comes to those who "love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity."

In view of the announcement made by the train organization brotherhoods with reference to a strike of the train service employees J. T. Loree, General Manager of the Delaware and Hudson Company, has addressed the following letter to the Engineers, Firemen, Hostlers, Conductors, Trainmen and Switch Tenders with a copy to all employees.

The Delaware & Hudson Company

OFFICE OF GENERAL MANAGER, ALBANY, NEW YORK

From: General Manager.

October 18th, 1921

To: Engineers, Firemen, Hostlers, Conductors, Trainmen and Switchtenders.

Subject: Contemplated Strike November 1st, 1921.

1. While the Delaware and Hudson Company has received no notice from its employees of their intention of leaving its service, the newspapers give detailed information of a strike to be inaugurated on November 1st. If such a strike is called it will be against the 12 per cent reduction of July 1st, and against a decision of the United States Railroad Labor Board.

2. You will recall that as soon as this Board was appointed it took up for settlement a controversy which had been long pending between the Director General and the organizations with reference to wages and working conditions and which, after conferences extending from March 10th to April 1st, 1920, had not been brought to an agreement. The Labor Board was organized April 15, 1920, and from that date to July 20th, 1920, constantly and assiduously received evidence, heard arguments, read and considered many volumes of testimony and many thousands of pages of exhibits and statements. In promulgating its Decision No. 2, on July 20th, 1920, it dated it back to May 1st, 1920, giving you an increase in pay of more than 20 per cent from that time.

3. This increase in pay by that Labor Board you accepted and enjoyed for fourteen months, and more than half of it you still enjoy.

4. Already at the time that the Labor Board rendered its decision, prices had begun to fall, and since then their decline has been steady, and there has been a cutting down of production with a large falling off in railroad traffic and heavy decrease in earnings. This led to efforts by individual carriers to reduce wages and, disputes arising, they were submitted under the law to the Labor Board in March, 1921.

5. Beginning on April 18th the Labor Board began hearings which lasted until May 16th, and then held the matter under consideration until June 1st, when it announced its Decision No. 147, reducing wages about 12 per cent, not setting it back as when it ran in your favor, but setting it forward to July 1st so as to continue longer to your advantage. Now you are asked to leave the service of the Company as a protest against this last decision. The public, whose agency the Labor Board is, will naturally ask why you took what the Labor Board gave you and worked, and now refuse to submit to what the Labor Board has taken away from you and quit work. What answer have you for the public? Can you defend your action as the right thing or the fair-minded thing to do?

6. The situation is confused by the proposed action by the railroad in proposing that the remainder of the increase granted under Award No. 2, about 10 per cent, be now removed.

7. The readjustment growing out of the war, of which prices are only one element, as the Labor Board points out, "has affected all lines of industrial life all over the United States, and produced conditions which have to be met and in whose burdens all have to share." It is the opinion of the Company that this makes reduction in both wages and rates unavoidable, but it is not a matter which the Company alone can decide. You well know that before any further reduction in wages can be made the new rates must be discussed with the representatives of the employees, and in case of disagreement that the dispute must be referred to the Labor Board, who will render a decision only after evidence has been examined and arguments heard. You will be charged by the public with throwing overboard the principle of investigation and mediation, and with doing this without any sufficient cause. What answer will you make? The public will ask, are you merely attempting to bully the umpire or are you refusing to abide by the umpire's decision, or both; are you the sort of people who won't play unless you have had it your way, or what sort of people are you, and what is your answer to be? You will be asked by the public why, when employees in the steel trade have accepted reductions of 40 per cent, employees in copper mines 26 per cent, employees in textile trade reductions of 22 per cent, and so for millions of others; you should bring disaster into a condition already critical over a reduction of 12 per cent. What answer will you make?

8. You have no fight against your Company. It has been for some time trying to negotiate a working schedule with your General Chairmen, and so far as the Company knows your General Chairmen have been willing to make a working schedule with the Company, but the Grand Officers have prevented this. Do you want to quit work under such conditions and, by so doing lose: 1st—Your job and pay; 2nd—Free transportation for yourself and family; 3rd—Your seniority rights; 4th—All hopes of a pension in your disability and old age?

9. Think it over and make sure you are doing right and fair by all concerned.

HUMANE WORK IN BROOME

S. J. KOERBEL TALKS INTERESTINGLY AS MASS MEETING IN MUNICIPAL HALL LAST EVENING.

Secretary of Broome County Humane Society and Relief Association described Social Work Done in Binghamton and Vicinity—Work of Local Organizations Outlined by Miss Short—Appeal Made for Support of Community Chest Project by E. W. Elmore and Secretary Hicks.

That the Broome County Humane Society and Relief Association, which is similar in its purpose and methods to the Ontario Community association, has decreased juvenile delinquency in Binghamton 50 per cent since its organization and has practically rid the city of pauperism, was the statement of Samuel J. Koerbel, secretary and superintendent of the association, in his speech last evening at the mass meeting in Municipal hall of citizens interested in the Community Chest project in this city. That fact alone, in the opinion of Mr. Koerbel, would be sufficient to justify the existence of the organization even if it were not for the many other splendid projects which the organization has fostered, such as the formation of boys' and girls' clubs and the superintendence of clinics for the treatment of nearly every common disease.

Because of other attractions in the city and the inclemency of the weather the attendance at the meeting was rather small but the citizens present followed closely the talks given by Mr. Koerbel, E. W. Elmore, Miss Nina Short and Everett Hicks, and seemed impressed by the arguments brought forth in favor of the drive for funds for the Community association. The meeting opened with a short prelude of community singing, led by Jerry Wilson, following which E. W. Elmore, chairman of the committee in charge of the Community Chest campaign, outlined the steps leading up to the present call for funds. He stated that the object of the beginning was to create an association of all the organizations in Oneonta doing health and social welfare work so that their work might be coordinated, with resultant economy in energy and finances. Such an association was created and work commenced to raise funds for its maintenance. The idea of a community chest, designed to obviate the necessity of a separate drive for each society, was advanced and adopted, and the societies were asked to prepare budgets of their financial needs. This has been done and the drive for the chest will begin next Monday.

Mr. Elmore then introduced Mr. Koerbel, characterizing him as a man who is as well qualified to speak on the subject as any man in the country because of his many years of experience in relief and welfare work. Mr. Koerbel expressed his pleasure at being privileged to discuss the work being done by his organization and proceeded to an explanation of what the Broome County Humane Society and Relief association is and what it accomplishes.

Nearly 15 years ago the first endeavor was made to coordinate the work of the various relief organizations in Broome county. At first each organization was jealous of every other but in 1915 the proposition became tangible and the Broome County Humane association was formed. In 1919 the other organizations were absorbed and the whole proposition put on an efficient working basis.

The association has its headquarters in the Community Service house, centrally located in Binghamton. In this building are located all of the various divisions, 12 in number, of the association, with the exception of the Boys' club, which has a three-story building of its own in the same square. The departments now operating are children's, domestic relations, relief, placing out children, medical and clinics, legal, loan, labor, detention and lodging, animal, and probation. The association also has supervision of the Boys' and Girls' clubs, with a total membership of nearly 1,200, and conducts day nurseries, a refuge for unfortunate girls, and baby welfare clinics in various parts of the city.

Twenty medical clinics are held, covering nearly every common disease. Excellent equipment, including the best x-ray apparatus in the city, has been provided and the clinics are under the supervision of specialists in the various diseases. Over 1,400 cases a year are treated. A notable achievement of the association has been the sponsoring of a state law requiring that delinquent minors in Binghamton shall not be jailed but shall be placed in the custody of the association officials and lodged in rooms provided for the purpose in the Community house until disposition is made of their cases. Lack of space forbids a discussion of the work of other departments, but their names will suggest their functions.

In closing, Mr. Koerbel stated that he knew very little of conditions in Oneonta, but agreed with the idea of one drive for the funds required for all relief organizations. He stated that this system was adopted in Binghamton but that conditions were not quite the same in both cities since the drive in Broome county did not include the Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross.

Miss Nina Short, county tuberculosis secretary, was then introduced and gave a summary of the work already accomplished in Oneonta and of the plans for the future. She stated that the Community association had been feeling its way, not being quite sure of its ground, but that now it was ready to stand out and make the most of its opportunities. She said that the association belonged to the people and that criticism and suggestion was always welcome. The ten organizations concerned in the Community Chest drive were mentioned and their nature outlined.

The last speaker was Everett W. Hicks, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Hicks stated that this drive goes down to the fundamentals of citizenship. A city is made up of its citizens and unless their health and social welfare is safeguarded a thriving, progressive community is impossible. He said that Oneonta must be made a better city to live in and that a successful Community Chest drive would be a step toward this ideal.

Mr. Elmore, in closing the meeting, stated that Oneonta could not and would not permit the campaign to fall and called attention to the meeting at the Oneonta theatre Sunday, when Mr. Hawn of New York will speak on the project.

GARAGES LEAD HOMES IN 1920

Review of Building Construction Figures Discloses Some Interesting Information.

HOME CONSTRUCTION DROPS

Money Spent on Moving Picture Theaters Equals That for Churches and Hospitals—New Residences Fall to Keep Pace With Marriages.

Washington.—More garages than houses were built in the United States last year and more money was spent in the erection of motion picture theaters than for churches and hospitals combined.

The discovery of the orgy of garage building and the boom in the establishment of new motion picture theaters was made by Secretary Davis in reviewing the figures on building construction for 1920 compiled by the labor department for 130 cities in the United States containing more than 32 per cent of the total population.

Mr. Davis' perusal of the figures further showed that the outlay for garages exceeded expenditures for erection of schools. He also found that home building failed utterly to keep pace with the number of marriages long considered an accurate gauge by which to measure the normal construction of dwellings. It is the opinion of the labor secretary that the prospect of catching up on the housing shortage is black indeed.

$1,204,430,764 Total Cost.
"The reports from 130 cities of more than 35,000 population each," said Secretary Davis, "show that $1,204,430,764 was expended in building construction in 1920. The population of these cities totals 54,572,904. There were 68,637 one-family houses constructed at a cost of $296,124,068, or 24.6 per cent of the total amount of money spent in all kinds of building. There were only 5,402 two-family houses built; but while in all the one and two-family houses combined there were but 31,103 families provided for, there were 93,121 garages built.

"To be sure, an unknown number of families were provided for in the 1,490 apartment houses that were built as such and the 289 apartment houses built with stores combined. Still, making liberal estimates for these, automobiles fared better than families. There were 426 moving picture and other amusement places built in these cities during the year at a cost of $40,523,140, or considerably more than the cost of churches and hospitals combined; and while these cities constructed 547 school houses their cost,

Many Reasons Why Big Nations Should Disarm

Approximately $1,500,000,000 has been appropriated for extension of the naval program by the five countries which are expected to discuss disarmament in Washington next autumn. The United States leads with $500,000,000. Great Britain is second with $422,000,000. Japan is third with $250,000,000. France is fourth with $275,000,000, and Italy is fifth with 73,000,000.

Discussion of the building programs will show the five countries armed on the oceans as follows: Great Britain, 355 ships; United States, 603 ships; Japan, 221 ships; France, 253 ships, and Italy, 245 ships.

$30,023,140, was but 'little more than half the money spent on the garages.

Building Lags.

The importance of these figures from a social point of view is that they show that building construction for the purpose of housing families lags far behind the current increase in the demand for houses. If we apply the marriage rate that obtained in 1916 to the population of these 130 cities we find that in 1920, 362,785 marriages took place in the cities considered. It used to be that a marriage very generally meant a new separate family and a new demand for a home either through purchase or rental. Thus, those conditions have somewhat changed, but if only half of the newly married couples seek homes to themselves we are building not more than half of the accommodations required, so that instead of catching up with the result of the cessation of residence building during the war we are not providing for in housing more than 50 per cent of the newly established families."

HAS ANYBODY SEEN BABE RUTH

Movie Man Seeks in Vain for Sultan of Swat—In Wrong State Is the Reason.

Warren, New York, is a town of but a few hundred inhabitants not far from Richfield Springs. Probably Babe Ruth, now barnstorming in defiance of the orders of Baseball Commissioner Landis, has never heard of the village and very possibly but few of the good citizens of Warren are well acquainted with the career of the ball busting babe, yet it was there that the Sentinel News sent C. F. Sanwald to movieize the efforts of Ruth in an exhibition contest.

When Mr. Sanwald reached Richfield and discovered the size and whereabouts of Warren, he concluded that it wasn't the Warren he wanted. A telephone message to his New York office revealed the fact that he had the right town but the wrong state. His instructions should have read Warren, Pa., instead of Warren, N. Y.

It was impossible to reach the Pennsylvania town in time for the game yesterday so Mr. Sanwald came to Oneonta and took the train last evening for Binghamton from whence he will proceed to Hornell, where Ruth's barnstormers appear today.

"PITTER-PATTER" PLEASES.

Large Audience Braves Weather and Is Well Satisfied with Play.

A large audience for any occasion and particularly a large one when the weather of last night is taken into account, was present at the Oneonta theatre last evening to witness the first presentation here of "Pitter-Patter," one of the best of recent musical productions. While a comedy in the true sense of the term, it was not overburdened with a tiresome farcical element. Instead, the course of the plot ran along smoothly, there was much enough to keep the attention of patrons, music enough to please the ear of the auditors and pretty and pretty attired girls enough to hold the unwavering eye.

The honors of the evening very properly went to Dean Cole and Fern Rogers, here and heroine. Particularly pleasing were the various solos, "I Saved a Waltz for You," by Miss Rogers, perhaps having and deserving the greater share of approval. The play was particularly well staged and the changes had the added quality of not unduly delaying the progress of the entertainment.

$250,000 FIRE AT MIDDLETOWN

Administration Building at State Hospital Grounds Destroyed—Lives of 350 Inmates, Mostly Elderly Women, All Saved.

George A. Roberts of Middletown, attached to the personal staff of C. S. Hathaway, owner of the Oneonta theatre, was in the city last night and reports that Middletown was visited by a $250,000 fire early Tuesday morning, when the big administration building on the grounds of the state hospital was destroyed, without loss of life.

The first floor of the structure is occupied by the administrative offices and the second and third floors were occupied by two wards in which were 350 patients, all of them elderly women and 60 of them bedridden. That they all escaped with their lives is due to the fact that the fire originated in the attic, caused by defective wiring, it is believed. The fire burned downward in the building. Had it developed in the basement or on the first floor, it is believed that many lives would have been lost.

The first alarm was from the state hospital siren, followed in a few minutes by the city alarm and shortly the chiefs call, which alerted all residents, indicating a serious fire. Fire companies from Goshen and Florida were summoned. The first task was the removal of the patients, who were assisted to another building 250 yards distant. A number unable to walk had to be carried and others refused to walk and they too had to be carried. All of the others responded when the hospital siren first sounded, which is the signal for a fire drill and which usually is sounded on Tuesdays and many did not know until afterward that a fire was in progress.

The building was the first one erected at the hospital and it was built in 1872. It is located high, nearly level with the city reservoir, so that the water pressure was very low. The firemen were well night powerless, being compelled to stand by and protect the other buildings as best they could. It is believed that had there been a strong wind that they would have been unable to save any of the hospital buildings.

Two Residences Change Owners.

James Sobers, who for several years past has occupied the residence at 19 Clinton street, has now purchased it of the owner, Frank L. Howard of Linden, N. J., and will continue to reside there. The residence, which is a double house, is in a good state of repair and Mr. Sobers is gratified to have become its permanent owner. He will rent one side of the house to his son, John Sobers.

Mrs. Zillah VanCleft of Upper Main street has sold one of her tenement houses on Fourth street to George Stillwell, who has resided on Seventh street. As soon as the house has been vacated by its present occupant, Mr. Stillwell will take possession.
